

Great tally for top road runners

Perth Road Runners is celebrating fine numbers in cross-country competitions over the courses of the season.

The season started at a very wet Livingston in October for the east district relays, where the club entered 5 teams in total.

Next up in January was the East District League, consisting of three different meetings in Kircaldy, Dundee and culminating in Bathgate.

Across the series, the Masters Men, led by team captain Kevin Riddell, finished a credible 10th out of 23 teams.

Better still, the Masters Woman's team finished a fantastic 4th out of 13, led by club personality of the year Fabienne Thompson.

The highlight being first team at a muddy Dundee Camperdown.

At the national Masters XC championship, Mens 50+ category the team came in fourth, where the Woman's team was second in the same age category.

In other news, the club are almost at capacity for entries to its Tay Ten (10 mile) race taking place on Sunday, April 28. To enter visit www.perthroadrunners.co.uk/tay-ten/

The committee announced at its recent AGM that a motion was passed unanimously to include u18 members – specifically aged 16 and 17 years – into the club constitution.

The club have been working hard to fulfil the necessary requirements laid out by Scottish Athletics.
